Chemistry 2nd Edition Blackman
The novel opens with Aunt Polly searching the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s misconduct and how she let him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper and Mrs. Sawyer asks him if he had been skipping school that morning and goes on to tell him that if he is ever caught, he will be whipped. Tom frowns and says he will be whipped anyway and that he is not so sure. She asks him where he has been and he replies that he has been skipping school, but she does not believe him. Tom is pleased that his lie has worked.

Tom goes out of the house to smoke a cigarette. While smoking, he hears a whispering. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom and the new arrival, Becky Thatcher, become acquainted and eventually choose the new rooms in the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “whore alley,” a kind of miracle. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
